MY COUNTRY'S FLAG OF STARS.

BY HARRY RIVERS, A FORETOPMAN.

I've roamed for many a lengthy mile,
Upon the stormy seas;
I've seen full twenty banners float
All proudly on the breeze—
That standard too, Great Britain's pride,
The boast of England's tars—
Yet none could thrill my heart but thee,
My Country's Flag of Stars!

Brazil's gay flag of gorgeous dyes;
The banner of old Spain;
E'en Gallia's bunting as it flies,
Is not undimm'd by stain;
Their lustre has been sullied oft
At home, by deadly jars;
But thy bright azure fields are pure,
My Country's Flag of Stars!

In some famed foreign ports I've seen
The flags of half the world—
To celebrate a gala-day—
Their bunting all unfurl'd,
With throbbing heart, I glanced my eye
Along the tapering spars,
Until my gaze was fixed on thee,
My Country's Flag of Stars!

And when thy stripes and azure field
First met my eager sight,
My bosom heaved, my heart it thrilled,
With feelings of delight.
I hailed it as the cynosure
Of our Columbia's tars;
The banner of the brave and free,
My Country's Flag of Stars!

And where's the heart possessing but
One spark of freedom's zeal,
That would not, gazing on thy folds,
A pariot's spirit feel?
The veteran too, as he looks down
Upon his ancient scars,
That would not hail thee with delight,
My Country's Flag of Stars?

LOVE.

There is a love so fond, so true,
No art the magic tie can sever:
'Tis ever beautious, ever new;—
Its chain once linked is linked for ever.

There is a love, but passion's beam,—
Too fond, too warm, too bright to last,—
The frenzy of a feavored dream,
That burns a moment, then is past.

'Tis like the lightning's lurid glare,
That streams its blaze of fatal light,
Flames for an instant through the air,
Then sinks away in deepest night.

There is a love whose feeling rolls
In pure unruffled calmness on,—
The meeting of congenial souls,
Of hearts whose currents flow in one.

It is a blessing that is felt
But by united minds that flow,
As sunbeams into sunbeams melt,
To light a frozen world below.

There is a love that o'er the war
Of jarring passions pours its light,
And sheds its influence like a star
That brightest burns in darkest night.

It is a love best known to those
Who hand in hand, amidst the strife
Together have withstood their foes,
Together shared the storms of life.

It is so true, so fixed, so strong,
It parts not with the parting breath;
In the soul's flight 'tis borne along,
And holds the heart's strings e'en in death.

'Tis never quenched by sorrow's tide;
No, 'tis a flame caught from above,—
A tie that death can not divide;—
'Tis the bright torch of wedded love.

But there is one love, not of earth,
Though sullied by the streaming tear—
It is a star of heavenly birth,
And only shines unshaken there.

'Tis when this clay resigns its breath
And the soul quits its frail abode,
That rising from the bed of death,
This love is pure—the love of God.

REMARKABLE OIL DISCOVERIES AT ROSSTON.—We have a statement from T. B. F., (a perfectly reliable gentleman,) fully concurred in by nine other citizens of Rosston, Armstrong county, a village on the line of the Allegheny Rail Road, and a few miles from Kittanning, relative to remarkable oil discoveries. It is in substance as follows:

On Saturday last, 16th, while a hole was being dug on a lot owned by Jos. L. Reed, oil was discovered spreading over the water at a depth of three and a half feet below the surface. There were doubts as to its being oil, but it was subsequently pronounced a very good quality—not so dark as other specimens seen by our correspondent, but burning very nicely on paper or wood, and even on the ground, and the smell the same as that of oil brought down the Allegheny. The excitement spread very radidly, and since the discovery at least a dozen holes have been dug in different parts of the town, ranging in depth from eighteen inches to eight feet, nearly all of them producing oil. The citizens think they have oil to a certainty, and the fever has extended to the surrounding country.

Mr. Blair, Postmaster-General, has issued proposals for furnishing postage stamps of the general style and description of those now in use, for a term of six years from the first of July next.—From the advertisement it appears that the whole number of postage stamps furnished to the Department during the year ending the 30th June, 1860, was 216,370,660.

A Yankee Courtship.

Well, you see, me and Sal got along midlin' well for some time, till I made up my mind to fetch things to a hed, for I loved her harder and harder every day, and I had an idea that she had a sorter sneaking kindness for me, but how to dew the thing up right pestered me orful. I got some love books and red how fellows got down on their marrow bones and talked like parrots, and the gals they would go into a sort of trance, and then how they would genuly fall into the fellar's arms, but somehow the way didn't suit my notion. I asked marm how dad courted her, but she said it had been so long that she'd forgot all about it. (Unkle Joe allers says marm done all the courtin'.)—At last I made up my mind to go it blind, for this thing was fairly consuming my innards.—So I goes over to her daddy's and when I got there I sot like a fool, thinking how I should begin. Sal she sed sumthin' was a troublin' me, and sez she—"Ain't you sick Peter!"

"Yes—No," sez I; "that is, I ain't exactly well. I thought I'd come over to-night," sez I. That's a mighty purty beginnin,' anyhow, thinks I; so I tried agin. 'Sal,' sez I, and about this time I felt mighty fainty and oneasy.

'What!' sez Sal.

'Sal,' sez I agin.

'What?' eez she.

'I'll get to it after a while at this lick,' thinks I.

'Peter,' sez she, 'there's somethin' a troublin' you powerful, I no. Its mity wrong for you tew keep it from a body, for a innerd sorrer is a consumin' fire.' She said this, she did, the dear sly creater. She noed what was the matter all the time mity well, and was jist a tryin' to fish it out, but I was gone so far I didn't see the pint. At last I kinder sorter gulped down the lump as was rising in my throat and sez I—'Sal, does you love everybody?'

'Well,' sez she, 'Thar's dad an' marm and, (counting her fingers all the time with eyes sorter shut, like a fellar shooting off a gun,) and there's old Pide, (that were an old cow of hern,) I can't think of anybody else jist now,' sez she. Now this war orful fur a feilar ded in luv, so arter a while I tries another shute. Sez I—'Sal I'm powerful lonesum to hum, and I sumtimes think if I only had a purty wife to luv and talk to, and to move and have my bein' with, I should be a tremendous fellar.'—With that she begun and named over all the gals within five miles of thar, and never wunst cum a nigh namin of herself, and sed I orter get one of them. That sorter got my dander up, and so I hitched my cheer close to hern, and shet my eyes, and tremblously sed: 'Sal, you are the very gal I've been hankering after for a long time, I luv you all over, from the sole of your head to the foot of your crown, an' I don't care who knows it; and if you say so, we'll be joined together in the holy bons of matrimony, e pluribus unum world without end,' sez I; and I felt like I'd a throwd'd up a allygatur, I felt so relieved. With that she fetched a sorter scream; and arter a while she sez, sez she, 'Peter?'

'What is it Sally?' sez I.

'Yes?' sez she, a hidin' ov her purty face behind her hands. You may depend upon it I felt orful good.

'Glory! glory!' sez I. 'I must holler, Sal, or I'll bust wide open. Hooray for hooray.—I kin jump over a ten rale fence, I can do everything that any fellow could, would or ortur do.' With that I sorter slashed myself down by her, and clinched the bargain with a kiss—an such a kiss—talk about your sugar—talk about yer merlasses—talk about yer blackberry jam—you couldn't have got me to come a nigh 'em; they would all a tasted sour arter that. Ef Sal's daddy hadn't hollered out its time for all 'onest folks to be in bed I do believe I'd staid there all nite. Yer ortur seed me when I got hum. I pulled dad outer bed and hugged him. I pulled marm outer bed and hugged her. I pulled ant Jane outer bed and hugged her. I pulled the nigger servant outer bed and hugged her. I roared, I hollered, I danced about and cut up more capers than you ever heard tell ov, till dad thot I was crazy, and got a rope to tie me with.—'Dad' sez I, 'I'm gwine to go for to git marrid.'

'Married!' bawled dad.

'Married!' squalled marm.

'Married!' squacked ant Jane.

'Yes, married!' sez I; jined in wedlock; hooked on fur wurs or fur bettur, for life and for death, to Sal; I am that very thing, me Peter Sporum, Esquire.' With that I up and telled 'em all about it from Alpher to Omejur, 'that's Latting.) They were all mity pleased and mity willin,' and I went to bed as proud as a yung rooster with his first spurs.

O Jehosifat! didn't I feel tremendous good, and kept a gitting that way all nite. I didn't sleep a wink, but kept rollin about and a thinkin' till my kup ov happiness was full, pressed down, and runnin' over.

QUESTION FOR DEBATE.—If a man has an angry bull by the tail, which would be best for his personal safety—to hold on, or let go?

Our 'Devil' says love and a good dinner (especially saur kraut) are the only two things that change a man's character.

Mr. Blank, I want to buy a shilling's worth of hay.

Very well, you can have it. It is for your father?

No, tain't. It's for the hoss. Dad don't eat hay.

Courting is an irregular, active transitive verb, indicative mood, present tense, third person singular number, and agrees with all the girls—don't it?

MY FIRST DUCK.

In the morning, when the light was about the color of a gray cat in a cellar, Tim roused me up, and we sallied forth. We marched silently along shore, 'looking sharp, through the reeds. Tim constantly whispered to me 'keep my eyes open.' The gun felt very heavy, and in that peculiar light looked about fifteen feet long. On we strode, my pulse going like a volunteer's at Buena Vista. Suddenly, says Tim, softly:

'Ah, there's a chance, by Jove! Now my boy, all ready?'

'Eh, chance! where at what?'

Tim put his fingers to his lips, and, making me crouch down, pointed through the reeds.—In a minute, sure enough, I saw a duck gracefully bobbing up and down, about fifty yards off, or less, I became awfully excited.

'Let me shoot him, Tim.

'Certainly; crack away.'

I knelt down; my fingers trembled like those of a sergeon at his first operation. The duck looked about the size of a turkey gobbler to my distorted vision. It was a fearful moment.

However, I recovered myself by a resolute effort, brought the gun up, took a long, murderous aim, my fingers pressed the trigger, whang? I beheld sky, and fourteen hundred thousand stars perpendicular before me. Upon examination, I found this phenomenon was occasioned by my horizontal position on my back, combined with the concussion of the shot.

'You've hit him! cried Tim. 'He's wounded. Quick, quck, take my gun while I load yours.'

I looked at my weapon. I had fired both barrels at once. I looked at the duck, he was bobbing up and down violently. Considerably bewildered, I, however, seized Tim's gun, resumed my position, took another deadly aim, and fired.

'T'other barrel! Quick! or he's off,' cried Tim.

Bang!

'By George! you've missed him! He's—no, he can't fly! see him spin round! Here, give him one more. Mind, aim carefully, now.

Bang! fi-z-z bang! I saw the sky and one thousand more planets than before. When I arose that diabolical duck was still there, spinning round more merrily than ever.

'Tim' said I 'that duck is remarkably tenacious of life.'

'Yes—yes. The fact is they are, generally especially canvass backs; they are called so on account of the thickness of their skin.—I am convinced that's a canvass-back.'

'Tim,' said I, 'I'll take the skiff and shove out there and get him. You wait here. He's nearly gone now:'

'Yes, I'll go back to the house and order breakfast. Our shots have spoiled further sport this morning. I'll have things ready by the time you get back.'

And without waiting for remonstrance Tim walked rapidly off.

I got in the skiff, shoved out, reached the duck, (who appeared, as I advanced, to have his head entirely shot off,) picked it up, and found that—it was a decoy! My remarks to Tim, upon rejoining him at the hotel, I have, upon reflection, concluded to omit.

ATTROCIOUS.—The following startling and highly imflamatory dispatches appear in a newspaper 'out West,' to which they were specially telegraphed:

Late, Later, Latest and Highly 'Important' from Charlestvn—Special Dispatches by the Underground Line.

Charleston, Supper Time, Feb. 14.—All the babies in the entire South are in "arms," and many in this city are now employed at the breast-works.

'Two and One Half Minutes Later.—Hundreds of the noblest women of South Carolina are behind the breast-works, and they boldly express their determination to remain there.

'Later Still.—Three Quarters of a Minute.—A number of young ladies were in 'arms' during the greater part of last evening, and many more are extremely anxious to follow the self-sacrificing example of their sisters.—shame on you young men.

'One Quarter of a Minute Later.—We have learned from reliable sources that the study of military tactics will be introduced into the female schools of this State immediately, as the spirited girls declare their willingness to take charge of the South Carolina 'Infantry' which is to be 'raised!'

'A report from the interior says the negrocs 'wear' drilling, but it needs confirmation.—Everybody is in a blaze of enthusiasm' and the Gas Company has suspended in consequence."

LET IT ALONE BOYS.—Let it alone? To drink that stuff in the drunkards bowl. Aye, let that alone! Don't even learn how it tastes. As the serpent fascinates the bird only to destroy it, so strong drink charms at first but kills at last. The first drop may charm you, therefore don't drink the first drop. If you wish to enjoy good health, if you value a good character, if you want to be happy and make others happy, if you want to go to Heaven, avoid strong drinks.

'Beware of the first drop!'

See yon youth with irons on his hands and feet. He is in prison. Another youth with weeping eyes is bidding him farewell, for the prisoner is about to be led out to die. He is a murderer. The law is about to take his life. But hearken! He is speaking something to his brother. What does he say!—These are his words:

'Remember what I told you—Let the liquor alone!'

Good reason had he for giving his counsel liquor had brought him to a fellon's doom—Let boys heed his words—Let liquor alone!

How to Prosper in Business.

In the first place make up your mind to accomplish whatever you undertake; decide upon some particular employment, and persevere in it. All difficulties are overcome by diligence and asiduity.

Be not afraid to work with your hands, and diligently, too. "A cat in gloves catches no mice.' He who remains in the mill, grinds; not he who goes and comes.

Attend to your own business; never trust to any one else. 'A pot that belongs to too many is ill-stirred and worse boiled.'

Be frugal. 'That which will not make a pot will make a pot-lid. 'Save the pence and the pounds will take care of themselves.'

Be abstemious. 'Who dainties love shall beggars prove.'

Rise early. 'The sleepy fox catches no poultry.'

'Plow deep, while sluggards sleep, and you will have corn to sell and to keep.'

Treat every one with respect and civility.—'Everything is gained and nothing lost, by courtesy.'

'Good manners insure success.'

Never anticipate wealth from any other source than labor, especially never place dependence in becoming the possessor of an inheritance. 'He who waits for dead men's shoes may have to go a long time barefoot.' 'He who runs after a shadow hath a wearisome race.

Above all things, never despair. God is where he was. 'He helps those who truly trust in him.

Julius. Why, you see, Sam, dat—dat de deer—when da cum to de woods—dey pull in dar horns!

A THICK-HEADED HUSBAND.—A pious old lady, who was too unwell to attend meeting, used to send her thick-headed husband to church, to find out the text the preacher selected as the foundation of his discourse. The poor dunce was rarely fortunate enough to remember the words of the text, or even the chapter or verse where they could be found; but one Sabbath he ran home in hot haste, and with a smile of self-satisfaction on his face, he informed his wife that he could repeat every word without missing a syllable. The words were as follows:—

'An angel came down from Heaven and took a live coal from the alter.'

'Know every word,' replied the husband.

'I am quite anxious to hear it, continued the wife.

'They are nice words,' observed the husband.

'I am glad your memory is improving; but don't keep me in suspense, my dear!

'Just get your big bible, and I will say the words for I know them by heart. Why, I said them a hundred times on my way home.'

'Well, now let's hear them."

'Ahem,' said the husband clearing his throat.

'An ingen cum down from New Haven and took a live colt by the tail and jerked him out of his halter.'

VALUABLE RECEIPTS.—To destroy rats—Catch them, one by one, and flatten their heads in a lemon squeezer.

To kill Cockroches—Get a pair of heavy boots, then catch your roaches, put them in a barrel, then get in yourself and dance.

To kill Bedbugs—Chain their hind legs to a tree, then go round in front and make mouths at them.

To catch Mice—On going to bed put crumbs of cheese in your mouth, and lie with it open and when a mouse's whiskers tickle your throat, bite.

To prevent dogs from going mad—Cut their tails off close behind their ears.

To keep Healthy—Take brandy smash early in the morning, throw it out of the window and then eat your breakfast.

To kill your Enemies—Treat them to tangleleg whiskey.

A young lady was one day talking to her little class in Sunday School about God's great love to man. Wishing to impress it upon their minds, and to know whether they understood her, she asked,

'Now, children, who loves all men?'

The question was hardly asked before a little girl not four years old, answered quickly, 'All women!'

It is feared the peach crop in some quarters in New Jersey is again nearly destroyed. The pleasant weather has caused the peach buds to swell and almost burst; but the cold has since blackened the buds; and in some orchards not a tree has been spared.

Agricultural.

Seasonable Hints.

COLD GRAPERY.—One of the most critical periods in the management of a grapery where there is no artificial heat employed, is when the buds are bursting into growth. A few days of genial weather at this time, will bring forward the buds, then comes a frosty night and destroys them. We are aware that such occurrences are rare, but unless great care is exercised first, in retarding growth as much as possible, by keeping the house well ventilated, and secondly, by mainiaining the vines in a horizontal position, the probabilities are, that if not destroyed they will receive a serious check. To avoid even a chance of failure through this means, it is a wise precaution to have a flue in the house, which may be used if occasion requires. We have known a crop saved during a frosty night in May, by filling the house with smoke.

Commence at once by keeping the house cool at night. And ventilate by top sashes only, bottom ventilators we consider useless in a cold grapery.

LAWNS.—In some retentive, undrained soils the grasses will be more or less thrown up, and the roots exposed. A covering of well pulverized soil, if mixed with a portion of wood ashes, superphosphate of lime, or guano, will impart vigor to the plants, and increase the color and verdure of the lawn. One of the principal points towards securing a fine lawn consists in mowing early, so that the plants may be induced to spread on the surface, and thus from a close covering, able to resist the the scorching influence of a dry season.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Annual plants for the flower garden, as Lupines, Asters, Marigolds, Stock-gilly flowers, Dwarf Larkspurs, Ameranthus, Cockscomb, Balsoms, Schizanthus, Foxglove, &c., &c., should be sown in a frame, to insure success. It is not necessary to make a hot-bed of manure, but procure well pulverized soil mixed with sand and wood mould, or that from decayed leaves if it can be obtained, sow the seed in drills and cover slightly. Keep the glass pretty close, and slightly shaded by sprinkling a little sand on the glass, until they vegetate, then air more freely. It will be advisable to thin out the plants slightly where they are so thick as to injure their growth. When the proper season arrives, about the middle of May, the plants can be carefully removed to the flower beds.

Hollyhocks are beautiful and effective in some positions in flower gardens, they are as double and variously colored as Dahlias. Procure seed of good sorts and sow it in a sheltered border in the open air, when the plants are a couple of inches high, transplant singly in rows about six inches apart, they will flower the following season.

PEARS ON QUINCE.—Pears grafted on Quince require deep rich soil, many failures have occured, and much disapointment has been occasioned by planting dwarf pear trees, in the abscence of a proper knowledge as to the treatment they demand.

Pear culture on this system is not for those who plant a tree as they do a gate-post, and who look on the after treatment in the same light, viz: leave them until they decay, and then plant another, grumbling all the while about the absurdity of this mode of raising pears. When planting the trees, place some light soil around the roots to give them a start. Cover the whole of the Quince root and about an inch of the pear stem with soil. The quince will throw out roots freely from any portion of the covered surface, if healthy, therefore deep planting, so long as the soil is in proper condition, is not in this case injurious. If the roots are stumpy, and destitute of fibres, cut several upward slips on various parts of their surfaces, to encourage the emission of roots.—Farmer and Gardner.

INDUCING FRUIT BEARING.—"An Old Subscriber" writes, "I have tried with most gratifying success a method of promoting fertility in trees, which was first suggested to me in the Agriculturist. I have a large Bartlett pear tree which has persisted year by year in making a most rampant growth, but which refused to do its duty in the more important matter of fruit bearing. In July last year, I took a stout cord and bound it as tightly as possible, three or four times around the trunk of the tree, and left it there until November. The result is that this year my tree had about three hundred large, fine looking pears upon it so loading it down that I had to prop up several of the branches to prevent their breaking. The tree at the same time has made a strong, healthy growth of about six inches.

TO REMOVE LICE OR SCALES FROM TREES.—Make soap suds strong, using whale oil soap if it can be had, and wash the bodies about the middle of June when the scales are young.—Potash and water answers the same purpose. Two washings during the season may be needful. Rubbing the bodies and limbs with a rough cloth, or with a broom, greatly facilitates the removal of the scale. The more vigorous you make the growth, by manure, ashes or lime, dug in around the roots, the less will you be troubled with insects upon, or diseases of the portion above ground. —American Agriculturist.

VACCINATING THE GRAPE VINE.—A French horticulturist, Col. de Golberg, claims to have discovered a method of preserving grapes from mildewing, by vaccinations. He placed one or two seeds of the mildewed grapes in the vine. A clammy matter was formed in the interior of the incisions, and the grapes entirely escaped the mildew; while one vine which was not vaccinated lost every one of its grapes.

In the matter of plain speaking we are many of us like the soldier, who in his first battle was afraid to fire off his musket lest he might hurt somebody.

"FEARLESS AND FREE."

WAR BEGUN!

The rebellion has begun! War is upon us! The traitors have attacked the United States forces in Fort Sumter! They did not even wait for any attempt on the part of the Government to reinforce Fort Sumter, but regardless of the calamity of civil war which they were forcing on the nation, and in contempt of the opinion of the whole civilized world, they assume the aggressive, and force upon the Government, a defensive war! They have passed the Rubicon—all efforts at negotiation are at an end. The Government must now repel force by force, and the duty of every citizen is to sustain the Government, in its efforts to put down rebellion. Whoever does less than this is a traitor! The policy of the Administration has been pacific, earnestly desirous of peace, it has stood quietly by, allowing government property and money to be stolen, and its citizens to be insulted with impunity. Any other government, instead of submitting to all this, would have crushed the rebellion long ago. The bombardment and capture of a United States Fort, commanded by the gallant Anderson, and his sixty or seventy almost famishing men, after thirty-six hours of gallant resistance, by one hundred times their number, with many formidable batteries, is the last hair upon the camel's back. The people will not submit to it any longer. Either treason or the government must triumph. Which must it be? Let the Keystone of the Federal Arch speak! Let New York, New England, the mighty West, and Northwest, and all other parts of the Union put forth their power. All party is now dropped. The question is Union or Disunion—are you for your country or against it? All patriots will therefore sustain the Administration, in crushing rebellion, and upholding the national honor.

The Gazette rejoices greatly over the election in Rhode Island. Let that paper rejoice.—Gov. Sprague the Democratic and Union candidate was elected last Spring, and re-elected the other day. Besides, Gov. Sprague is a patriot, and all true men who love their country will rejoice that he was re-elected, since he has so nobly offered to the National Government, the services of the Marine Artillery and 1,000 men from little Rhody, himself to march at the head of them, to aid in putting down rebellion, and in defence of the glorious stars and stripes. The time for party is gone.—The question is simply, are you for your country or against it? Gov. Sprague, Democrat though he be, has a heart for his country, and we rejoice that he was re-elected. Hurra for Gov. Sprague and Rhode Island! They are true to the Union as we hope all, Democrats, Bell men, and Republicans may be, in this, the most trying hour in our country's history.

Impromptu Meeting.

A meeting was called in a few minutes on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of expressing the sentiments of this community on the present state of the country, and for raising a military company, to offer their services to the Government. Hon. JOHN TAYLOR was called to the Chair; HENRY NICODEMUS and ROBERT MONTGOMERY, chosen Vice Presidents; and Wm. L. Fyan, and R. D. Barclay, Secretaries.

Hon. A. King stated the objects of the meeting, in an appropriate manner. Hon. John Cessna, was called upon, and made a very eloquent and patriotic speech in support of the Constitution and the Union. He was followed by Messrs. John H. Filler, Fr. Jordan, and D. Over. The meeting was very large and enthusiastic. Over thirty have joined the company.

Douglas for his Country.

We are gratified to publish the following dated Washington, April 14, 1861. It shows that Senator Douglas' heart is in the right place:

Senator Douglas called on the President to-night. He had an interesting conversation on the present condition of the country. The substance of it was, on the part of Mr. Douglas, that while he was unalterably opposed to the Administration on all its political issues, he was prepared to sustain the President in the exercise of all his constitutional functions to preserve the Union, maintain the Government, and defend the Federal Capitol.

A firm policy and prompt action were necessary. The capital of our country was in danger and must be protected at all hazards, at any expense of men and money. He spoke of the present and future without reference to the past.

Mr. Lincoln was very much gratified with the interview.

For the gratification of the Gazette, we will state, that we were tendered a $1400 Clerkship, in the War Office, at Washington, by Gen. Cameron, without any solicitation on our part, and that we declined the office.

A rumor from Richmond states that Gen. Scott intends to resign. The absurd rumor is not believed, however.

The Bedford Gazette, of the 29th ult., had an article in which it charged that Carl Shurz, the great German orator, and other German Republicans are now getting their reward from the Lincoln administration. "They asked for office, and the Know Nothing feeling in the 'Republican' ranks is aroused, and Shurz & Co., are marched out in the cold.'" We showed that Shurz, had been appointed Minister to Spain, and the claims of other Germans had not been overlooked. In the last week's Gazette, it charges that Shurz is an "infidel and outlaw." That paper when it thinks it can make capital by its supposed desertion of the claims of Germans by the Administration, sends up a howl of sympathy, but when it finds that their claims have not been overlooked, it calls them "infidels and outlaws." What do our German fellow citizens think of this?

A party was organized last year, repudiating all platforms, except "The Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws." Some 80 votes of this party were cast in this County, by men whom we believe to have been honest in their sentiments. Their idea was that by enforcing the laws the Union would be preserved. Now, the disunionists have commenced the war, fired on some sixty or seventy starving men, and captured an American Fortress, bringing disgrace on the glorious stars and stripes. Let all patriots go in for "the Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of the laws." Who fails to do this now, is a traitor to his God and his country!

NECK TIES.—Messrs. Smith & Brouwer, No. 36 Warren St., New York, have forwarded us three Neck Ties. First, the Paper Neck Tie, a very useful and cheap article, and made to imitate silk, satin, &c.; Second, The Relief Tie, one of the most perfect kind we have ever seen; Third, The Lace Edge Tie, an exquisitely beautiful article. They sell to wholesale jobbers only. The articles would sell in this community.

A NEW COMPANY.

A new volunteer company is about being organized in town, for the purpose of tendering their services to the Governor. About 30 names have been already enrolled. Let all patriotic young men, in all parts of the County, join the company, and rally to the standard of their country.

We are not able to publish all the telegraphic dispatches in relation to the feeling in the North. Suffice it to say that the whole North is aroused, and that volunteers are offering their services to the Government, in immense numbers. A number of Pennsylvania companies have already left for Washington.

Let traitors beware! Giving aid and comfort to an enemy in time of war is death, according to the constitution of the United States. We will publish this article next week, and the late law of Pennsylvania on the subject.

We call attention to the Cards of Messrs. John Palmer, and Dr. J. E. McGirr, Attorneys at Law. We have no doubt they will attend to business with "promptness and dispatch."

Alexander Murdoch of Washington, has been appointed Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Gov. Curtin has written a letter to New York, in which he says Pennsylvania could raise 100,000 men, in forty-eight hours.

It is reported that Georgetown has been fortified, by our Government, and that munitions of war have been shipped to Annapolis.

The dispatches which we publish to-day, are mostly from disunion sources, and greatly exagerated. We will have more correct details next week.

The communication from New Bridgeport was not accompanied with any name.

Sentiment of Ex-President Buchanan.

LANCASTER, April 15.

Mr: Buchanan shares the intense interest in the news, from the South, and participates in the expression of a determination, to sustain the Government.

HURRAH FOR RHODE ISLAND.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Saturday, April 13.—Governor Sprague has tendered to the Government the services of the Marine Artillery, and 1,000 Infantry, and offers to accompany them himself.

ATTENTION! ATTENTION!!

We do hope all indebted to us, will make it convenient to pay their bills, or at least part of them, by Court Week. We have not made half our payment this spring. Friends, will you leave us stick? If you do, the Lord be merciful to you, for we don't know whether we can.

By the President of the United States.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, The laws of the U. States have been for some time past, and are now opposed, and the execution thereof obstructed in the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas, by combinations too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary cource of judicial proceedings, or by the powers vested in the marshals by law:

Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, in virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution and the laws, have thought fit to call forth, and hereby do call forth, the militia of the several States of the Union, to the aggregate number of seventy-five thousand, in order to suppress the said combinations, and to cause the laws to be duly executed. The details for this object will be immediately communicated to the State authorities through the War Department.

I appeal to all loyal citizens to favor, facilitate, and aid this effort to maintain the honor, the integrity, and the existence of our National Union, and the perpetuity of the popular Government, and to redress the wrongs already long enough endured.

I deem it proper to say that the first service assigned to the forces hereby called forth will probably be to repossess the forts, places, and property, which have been seized from the Union, and, in every event, the utmost care will be observed consistently with the objects aforesaid, to avoid any devastation, any destruction of or interference with property, or any disturbance of peaceful citizens in any part of the country.

And I hereby command the persons composing the combinations aforesaid to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes, within twenty days from this date.

Deeming that the present condition of public affairs presents an extraordinary occasion, I do hereby, in virtue of the power in me vested by the Constitution, convene both Houses of Congress. The Senators and Representatives are therefore summoned to assemble at their respective chambers at 12 o'clock, noon, on Thursday, the 4th of July next, then and there to consider and determine such measures as, in their wisdom, the public safety and interest may seem to demand.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 15th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-fifth.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

The Plans of the United States Government Disclosed by Intercepted Dispatches!

CHARLESTON, April 12.—Intercepted dispatches disclose the fact that Mr. Fox, who had been allowed to visit Maj. Anderson on the pledge that his purpose was pacific, employed his opportunity to devise a plan for supplying the fort by force, and that this plan had been adopted by the Government at Washington, and was in progress of execution.

THIRD DISPATCH.

Two of Fort Sumter's Guns Silenced—Reported Breach in the Southeast Wall—Anderson to Surreender on the Exhaustion of his Supplies, if not Reinforced—No Loss on the Southern Side.

Two of Fort Sumter's guns have been silenced.

It is reported that a breach has been made in the southeast wall of Fort Sumter.

The answer made by Maj. Anderson to Gen. Beauregard's demand was, that he would surrender when his supplies were exhausted if he was not reinforced.

Not a casualty has as yet happened to any of our men (the Carolinians.)

Of the nineteen batteries in position, only seven have opened on Fort Sumter. The remainder are held in reserve for the expected fleet

Two thousand men reached the city this morning and embarked for Morris Island and other points in that neighborhood.

FOURTH DISPATCH.

Three War Vessels Reported Outside.

CHARLESTON, April 12—(Received in Philadelphia at 10.30 P. M.)—The bombardment of Fort Sumter still continues.

The floating battery and Stephens' battery are operating freely.

Fort Sumter continues to return the fire.

It is reported that three war vessels are outside the bar.

FIFTH DISPATCH.

CHARLESTON, April 12.—The firing has ceased for the night, to be renewed at daylight in the morning, unless an attempt be made in the meantime to reinforce Fort Sumter, to repel which ample arrangements have been made.

The Seceders have worked their guns admirably well.

Only two were wounded during the day.

The Pawnee, Harriet Lane, and a third war steamer, are reported off the bar.

Fresh troops are arriving here by every train.

SIXTH DISPATCH

CHARLESTON, April 12—[Received in Philadelphia April 13, 2 o'clock, A. M.]—The bombardment of Fort Sumter is still going on, every twenty minutes, from the mortars. It is supposed that Major Anderson is resting his men for the night as he has ceased to reply.

Three vessels-of-war are reported outside, but they cannot get in. The sea is rough.

Nobody on the Carolina side has been hurt by this day's engagement.

The floating battery works well.

Every inlet is well guarded.

There are lively times on the Palmetto coast.

The Latest!

SEVENTH DISPATCH.

CHARLESTON, April 13—2.30 A. M.—It will be utterly impossible to reinforce Fort Sumter to-night. A storm is raging, and the sea is very rough.

The mortar batteries will be kept playing on Fort Sumter all night.

LATEST FROM CHARLESTON.

The Bombardment Continued—Fort Sumter on Fire—The Federal Flag at Half Mast—The Fleet over the Bar—The Protection of the Capitol—Dismissals from the Army—A Secessionist Mobbed at Baltimore—Wreck of a guard-ship off North Carolina—Seventeen Lives Lost.

CHARLESTON, April 13.

The cannonading is going on fiercely from all points, from the vessels of war outside and all along the coast. Fort Sumter is now on fire.

THE LATEST.

CHARLESTON, April 13, 10½ o'clock.—At intervals of twenty minutes, the firing was kept up all night on Fort Sumter.

Major Anderson ceased to fire at 6 o'clock in the evening.

All night he was engaged in repairing the damages done to the Fort, and protecting the guns in barbette on the parapet.

He commenced to return the fire this morning at 7 o'clock, but seems to be greatly disabled.

The battery on Cumming's Point does Fort Sumter great damage.

At 9 o'clock this morning a dense smoke poured out from the walls of Fort Sumter.

CHARLESTON, April 13.—Received (at Philadelphia at 2 P. M.)—The Federal flag at fort Sumter is at half mast, signalling distress

The shells from Fort Moultrie and Morris Island fall into Anderson's stronghold thick and fast. They can be seen in their course from the Charleston battery.

The breach made in Fort Sumter is on the side opposite Cumming's Point. Two of its port-holes are knocked into one, and the wall from the top is crumbling.

Three vessels, one of them a very large seized steamer, are over the bar, and seem to be preparing to participate in the conflict.

The fire of Morris Island and Fort Moultrie is divided between Fort Sumter and the ships-of-war.

The ships have not as yet opened fire.

LATER.

An Explosion at Fort Sumter.

An explosion has occurred at Fort Sumter. A dense volume of smoke was seen suddenly to rise.

Maj. Anderson has ceased to fire for about an hour. It is thought that the officers' quarters in Fort Sumter are on fire.

From Another Source.

CHARLESTON, April 13. A. M.—The batteries of Sullivan's Island, Cumming's Point and Steven's battery are pouring shot and shell into Fort Sumter.

Anderson does not return the fire.

Sumter is still on fire.

There have just been two explosions at Fort Sumter.

Report that Charleston is on Fire.

A report reached us this morning, that a private dispatch had been received by a gentleman in this city, stating that Charleston was on fire, but we have been unable to trace it to an authentic source.

The report that Fort Sumter is on fire, mentioned in the dispatches, is doubtful, as there is very little there that is combustible.

All dispatches from Charleston are necessarily as favorable as possible to the Secessionists.

From Washington City.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The regular troops now here have been ordered to the outskirts of the city and have proceeded thither, to watch every avenue thereto, while the volunteers recently mustered in guard the armories and public buildings.

Videttes are constantly seen riding through the streets.

There is comparatively but little excitement here in regard to affairs at Charleston.

Capt. Wm. B. Johns, of the 3d Infantry, having declined to command his company, when ordered on a particular service, the President directs that he cease to be an officer of the army, from Wednesday last.

First Lieut. Abner Smead, of the First Artillery, having when with his company, under critical circumstances, tendered his resignation, in order to escape from duty, thereupon the President directs that he cease to be an officer of the army.

WASHINGTON, April 13, 1 p. m.—All is excitement to-day over the war news.

The Charleston Courier, received here, says that a fine rifled cannon has arrived there from Liverpool. It is a present to the State from a Carolinian now resident in the latter place, G. R. Prioleau, Esq.

The Charleston Evening News has been suspended. The proprietors say that nearly all their hands are on duty in the forts.

The proposed shoe and leather factory in Charleston has been abandoned, on account of the troubled state of the times.

Excitement at Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, April 13.—The intelligence from Charleston has produced great excitement, and the anxiety to obtain further news is intense.

A man made his appearance in the streets with a large secession cockade on his hat.—He was pursued by a mob, and was only protected from violence by the interference of the police.

The War News at Boston.

BOSTON, April 13.—The war news produces intense excitement here and throughout the State. The general sentiment is that the Government is right and must be sustained.

The Virginia Commissioners—Interview with the President His Reply.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The Commissioners from Virginia had a pleasant interview with the President this morning.

The result was simply a statement by the President that he will act according to the Inaugural programme, hold the public property and defend it, waging no war against the Seceding States, and maintaining the defensive The President's reply was given in writing.

It will be recollected that the Commissioners came hither under instructions to respectfully ask the President to communicate to the Convention the policy to be pursued in regard to the Confederate States.

Wreck of a Guard Ship.

NORFOLK, April 13—It is reported here that a large guard ship was wrecked during the late storm, on the North Carolina coast.—Seventeen lives are said to have been lost.

Orders have been received to fit out the steamer Merrimac immediately.

The Government Advertising.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The President, in the exercise of his discretion to designate the newspaper here in which the Executive advertisements shall be published, in addition to the two papers publishing them by virtue of their circulation, has designated the National Republican.

Effect of the War News at Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 13—The Charleston news is received here with deep regret at the prospect for the future. It produced no extraordinary excitement, but on the contrary, a general spirit of depression.

Latest from Charleston.

The Fire Slackening—The Fleet Too Late for the Tide—The Flag Still Waving Over Sumter—The Barracks Destroyed by Fire—News From the Montgommery Government—War to be Declared—Military Movements at Washington.

CHARLESTON, April 13.—Two of Major Anderson's magazines have exploded. It is thought that they were only the smaller magazines.

Only occasional shots are now fired at him from Fort Moultrie.

The Morris Island battery is doing heavy work

The greatest excitement prevails in the city.

The wharves, steeples housetops and every available place are packed with people.

The Outside Vessels too Late to Pass the Bar!

The ships in the offing have not yet aided Anderson.

It is now too late for them to come over the bar, as the tide is ebbing.

CHARLESTON, April 13—Noon.—The ships in the offing appear quietly at anchor, and have not fired a gun.

The entire roofs of Anderson's barracks are in a vast sheet of flames.

Shells from Cummings' Point and Fort Moultrie are bursting in and over Fort Sumter in quck succession.

The Federal flag still waves over the fort.

Major Anderson is only occupied in putting out the fire.

Every shot appears te tell, and the spectators are anxiously expecting the striking of the flag.

A General Engagement Impending.

CHARLESTON, April 13.—Two war ships are making in towards Morris Island with the view to land troops to silence the batteries.

WASHINGTON, April 13—3 P. M.—Official advices have just been received from Montgomery. They state the Congress there will immediately declare war against the United States, discriminating in their declaration between alien friends and alien enemies—that is between those who sustain and those who oppose the Washington Administration. This may be relied on.

A despatch from a secession source at Charleston, in cipher, says that the fire from Fort Sumter ceased at 10 o'clock to-day. The flag was at half-mast, and the fleet had been signalled by Major Anderson. The fleet was engaged with the battery on Morris Island.

All is comparatively quiet at the White House and the Departments to-day. There was a brief session of the Cabinet this morning at 11 o'clock.

It is asserted in political circles that the President will call for the service of volunteers.

A proclamation for an extra session of Congress is expected to be issued on Monday.

The President has no information of the operations at Charleston except what he gets through the press.

More troops are being sworn in at the War Department. The volunteers of Alexandria were ordered out to-day.

The Very Latest.

Fort Sumter Completely in Flames—Flames Bursting from all the Port Holes—A Raft Employed—A General Engagement Impending.

CHARLESTON, April 13.—Fort Sumter is undoubtedly on fire.

The flames are raging.

Anderson has thrown out a raft loaded with men, who are passing up buckets of water to extinguish the flames.

The fort is scarcely discernable for the smoke.

The men on the raft are now the objects of fire from Morris Island.

With good glasses, the balls can be seen skipping the water and striking the unprotected raft.

Great havoc is created among the poor fellows.

It is surmised that Anderson is gradually blowing up the Fort. He scarcely fires a gun.

The flames are bursting from all the port holes of Fort Sumter and destruction is inevitable.

The few shots that Anderson fired this morning, knocked the bricks off the chimneys on the officers' quarters at Fort Moultrie like a whirlwind.

It seems that Anderson's only hope is to hold out for aid from the ships.

Fort Sumter has been surrendered.

The Latest Southern News.

Apportionment of the 75,000 Volunteers—Sixteen Regiments from Pennsylvania—The Vessels Sent to Charleston—Their Orders and those of Major Anderson—The Requisition for Volunteers.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The following are the requisitions of the President upon the Governors of the several States for military to act in the maintenance of the Union:

New York,	seventeen Regiments.
Pennsylvania,	sixteen "
Illinois,	six "
Indiana,	six "
Missouri,	four "
Kentucky,	four "
Ohio,	three "
Tennessee,	two "
Massachusetts,	two "
Wisconsin,	one "
Minnesota,	one "
Iowa,	one "
Michigan,	one "
Delaware,	one "
Connecticut,	one "
Rhode Island,	one "
Vermont,	one "
New Hamshire,	one "
Maine,	one "

Seventy-five regiments in all, of one thousand men each.

[But Seventy Regiments appear in the above list, and as New Jersey and Maryland are not included, we infer the other Five Regiments have been accidentally omitted by the Telegraph Reporter.]

The Naval Vessels Sent to Charleston.

We learn this afternoon, from a good and responsible authority, some particular concerning the vessels sent to Charleston, which are important.

The vessels sent were only the Pawnee and the Harriet Lane. The instructions were that the Harriet Lane should enter the harbor and furnish supplies to Fort Sumter. If fired on, she was to withdraw.

The Government has information that she was fired upon, receiving a shot in her side.—She then retired over the bar, where the Pawnee remained.

Major Anderson's instructions were that if he should be fired on he should return it; but that he should not fire on Charleston, and should avoid, as much possible, any injury to private property.

The fleet of war vessels and transports sent from New York was destined for Fort Pickens, the Pawnee and the Harriet Lane being the only ones ordered to Charleston. They will be sufficient to maintain a blockade.

Sailing of the Water Witch.

The United States steamer Water Witch sailed to-day from the Philadelphia Navy Yard, with sealed orders. She is probably destined for the Gulf of Mexico.

ARMING THE STATE.

The following is the bill passed in the Legislature, Saturday evening last, and imediately signed by the Governor. The Democrats all voted against the bill. When the news of the opening of the fire by the forces of South Carolina upon Fort Sumter was announced, Mr. Smith, a Democratic member of the House form Philadelphia, changed his vote in favor of the bill, amidst great cheering for this patriotic act.

AN ACT for the better organization of the militia of the Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the grand staff of the militia of this Commonwealth shall in addition to the commander-in-chief, who shall have one aid for each division, to be appointed and commissioned by him during his term of office, consist of one adjutant general, who, until otherwise ordered, shall act as paymaster general, inspector general and judge advocate; one commissary general and one quartermaster general, who shall each be of the rank of lieutenant colonel, and who shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, upon the passage of this act, and to hold their commissions during his pleasure.

SEC. 2. That the Adjutant General shall receive a salary of five hundred dollars per annum, and in addition three dollars per day when actually engaged in the service of the State; the Quarter-Master General and Commissary General shall each receive five dollars per day, when actually engaged in the service of the State; it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the commonwealth to prepare the room formerly occupied by the Canal Commissioners in the Capital, for the use of the officers before named, who shall be allowed one clerk at a salary of one thousand dollars per annum, to be appointed by the Adjutant General.

Union Feeling in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, April 13.

A man made his appearance on the streets in this city this morning, wearing a large Secession cockade on his hat. He was pursued by a crowd, and had to be protected by the police.

Intense excitement prevails here, and great anxiety exists to learn the news from Charleston.

BALTIMORE, April 14.

The Union feeling in this city has been unmistakeably displayed since Friday. Men with cockades and Secession emblems have been chased by crowds, and protected by the police.

The bark Fanny Fenshaw hoisted the Secession flag to-day, and a crowd compelled a boy on the vessel to take it down. The Captain afterward rehoisted it, and required a detachment of 30 police to protect it from the people. The indignation is intense. All the other vessels in port hoisted the American flag. The Captain is a Union man, but hoisted the flag under instructions from the owners of the vessel, the Messrs. Curry of Richmond, Va.

MARRIED.

SHRINER'S
MASTER OF PAIN.
THE GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY,
For Sprains and Bruises, Burns and Scalds, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Pains, Swellings, Stiff Joints, Paralysis, or Numbness of the Limbs, Pains in the Breast, Side or Back; Sore Throat, Tooth Ache, Frosted Feet, &c., &c., And for the Relief of Pain Anywhere and Everywhere.

This is a most perfect preparation, and seldom fails to dogood. It is harmless in its effects but powerful to relieve Pain. If you use it once you will not likely be without it again. You will find it a constant household friend, giving ease and relief just when needed. Keep it constantly on hand and it will save you many hours of pain and suffering. There is hardly a pain it will not ease.—There is hardly an accident that will occur where it will not be useful.
Should one of your family get burned or scalded, cover the burned part with a cloth of several thicknesses wet with the "Master of Pain," and keep the cloth saturated with it. In a short time it will draw all the fire out. It will cause a prickling sensation—this is the fire coming out. Keep it wet with the "Master of Pain" until the pain and prickling ceases. Let the wet cloth stay on for six or eight hours, after which apply some healing ointment or sweet oil. In nearly all cases of Pain or Soreness of the Chest, Throat, Side, Back, Spine, Limbs or Joints, it will give relief.—Rub it on freely with the hand or with a flannel cloth until the skin becomes heated and burning.
For soreness of the throat rub it on until it produces a little soreness.
For Croup use it in connection with the Cough Syrup, by rubbing it on the chest.
For Rheumatism and all deep seated pains, if the pain is not speedily removed by rubbing with the hand, lay a cloth wet with the liquid over the part affected, and pass a warm smoothing iron over it.
For Pains in the Breast, Side or Back, the same may be done.
For Tooth-ache, drop it on cotton, and apply it to the nerve of the tooth, also rub the gums and cheeks with it.
For Frosted Feet, apply the "Master of Pain" freely, and dry it in before the fire.
For Head-ache rub it on the forehead.
It is called "Master of Pain." I did not give it this name—I don't like the name. When I first commenced making it it was without name or label. I made it and sold it by the ounce at my Drug Store. I had no idea then of making a business of it. Some who bought it called it Master of Pain, and by this name it became known for many miles round. And finally, when I had a label printed I was compelled to adopt the name, for by that name it was known. After all, the name is not so very inappropriate. It is used to alleviate or remove pain. It is put on wherever there is pain. Sometimes it will cause pain, but the result always is freedom from pain.
Reader—try it—take a bottle with you—use it whenever occasion requires—give it a fair trial.

BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP,
For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.
From the Rev. Samuel Yingling.
BEDFORD, Nov. 3, 1860.
MR. W. E. SHRINER—Dear Sir: Upon several occasions I have used your Balsamic Cough Syrup, in my family and also on one occasion myself—when worn by frequent preaching, and with the happiest results.
SAMUEL YINGLING.
BEDFORD Nov. 3, 1860.
W. E. SHRINER—SIR: As you are about to introduce your Balsamic Cough Syrup into our County. I will give you my experience with it, which you are at liberty to use if you think proper, some two years ago a box that was lost on the Pennsylvania Central R. R. found its way to my store. I opened the box and found it to contain your Balsamic Cough Syrup. I had never heard of it at that time but a Mr. Aughinbaugh from your state happened to be present and said it was one of the best cough remedies in use and happening to need a cough medicine in my family I determined to give it a trial, and so well pleased was I with its effects that I gave bottles of it to my friends all of whom agree with me in pronouncing it the best cough remedy they have ever met with. We have used it for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough, and in every case it gave the most signal relief.—Yours truly,
ADAM FERGUSON.
I used in my family some of the Cough Syrup refered to by Mr. Ferguson, and fully concur in the opinion expressed by him.
WM. AGNEW.
We used Shiners' Balsamic Caugh Syrup and consider it the best Cough Medicine we ever used.

He now invites his friends and customers to call and examine his splendid new goods—they will be shown with pleasure and disposed of at very light profits.—Just opening and on hand—DRY GOODS, HATS, CAPS, CLOTHING, SHOES, QUEENSWARE, GROCERIES, and all goods kept in a general store. Ladies can here find all they want for dress or comfort. Gentlemen need go no farther, come and examine for yourselves.
